Since opening in 2000, Rick's has always been at the forefront of Edinburgh's dynamic cocktail scene.

While trends evolve continuously, a classic bar will always combine excellent service and just the right ambience with a true passion for product and perfection. Similarly, a great cocktail is still defined by the requirement for balance: strong and weak, sweet and sour, a simple formula that bartenders have religiously adhered to since the word 'cocktail' was first documented way back in 1806.

This cocktail list is inspired by our experiences as bartenders, what we see and what we feel, scribed in the simplest fashion. We are all apprentices in a craft where no-one becomes a master – or so we believe! With all our syrups, cordials and bitters house made, all ice hand-carved and juices freshly pressed and with only the finest ingredients available, we present you with a compendium of delicious and refreshing libations that carry Rick's gracefully into the new 'Golden Age of the Cocktail'.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Sauvignon's natural home is in the Loire Valley in central and Eastern France. The crisp, herbaceous style is epitimised by Sancerre and Pouilly Fumé but the pungent aromas and easy drinkability of Sauvignon have found it friends all over the globe. New Zealand was first to pick up the baton and the ripe tropical, guava characters of Cloudy Bay helped the Kiwis become the number one white wine seller in Australia – that's got to stick in their throats!

Los Espinos Sauvignon Blanc, Central Valley – Chile	£22.50
The Opportunist Sauvignon Riesling, Adelaide Hills – Australia	£24.50

Domaine Crochet Sancerre, Loire – France	£38.95
Amayna Sauvignon Blanc, Leyda Valley – Chile	£38.95

PINOT GRIGIO

Does it need an introduction? Easily the most popular variety currently, Pinot Grigio (or Pinot Gris) calls Alsace home but it's in Italy that is has really found fame. Easy drinking, not too challenging but very happy company for a night out, Pinot Grigio is the great all-rounder.

Bella Modella, Garganega Pinot Grigio, IGT Veneto – Italy	£19.50
Casa Defra Pinot Grigio, IGT Veneto – Italy	£23.50
Santa Rosa Torontes Pinot Grigio, Mendoza – Argentina	£27.50

CHARDONNAY

Chardonnay is very much the chameleon grape variety, changing its appearance and character depending on where it is grown, who makes it and how much time and love (not to mention money) is lavished upon it. Having been raised in the rarefied atmosphere of Burgundy, Chardonnay grew up, went to seed a little bit during its rock 'n' roll years but is now back on form. Look out for modern new world producers like Phi who produce world beating Chardonnay at half the price of great Burgundy.

Centelleo Macabeo Chardonnay, VdT Castilla – Spain	£18.50
One Chain Vineyards "The Googly", Chardonnay, Adelaide Hills – Australia	£23.95
Terrazas Chardonnay Reserva, Mendoza – Argentina	£44.95
Eberle Chardonnay, Paso Robles – USA	£49.95
Domaine Michelot Meursault "Sous La Velle", Burgundy – France	£60.95

AROMATICS

Fancy something fragrant and pretty? Look no further… Some would argue that this category includes the world's greatest variety, Riesling so don't be fooled by it's chequered past. Racy, limey and brilliant with spicy food, Riesling really demands another chance. Getting in on the aromatic act are the spicy, exotic Torrontes from Argentina and a lip smacking, rose petal scented Gewurz' from those masters of Marlborough, Zephyr.

Mont Rocher Viognier, IGP Pays D'Oc – France	£27.50
Sherwood Estate Riesling, Marlborough – New Zealand	£28.50
Zuccardi Serie A Torrontes, Salta – Argentina	£29.50
Zephyr Gewurztraminer, Marlborough – New Zealand	£34.50

ODDBALL WHITES

Step off the beaten track, worn down by weary Pinot Grigio and Sauvignon drinkers and join the merry band of the oddballs. A motley crew that despite its varied make-up includes some of the greatest, most eclectic whites in the world.

Raats Original Chenin Blanc, Stellenbosch – South Africa	£24.95
Latium Morini, Soave, Veneto – Italy	£24.95
Domäne Wachau Grüner Veltliner, Terrassen, Wachau – Austria	£32.50
Castel De Bouza Albariño, DO Rias Baixas – Spain	£33.50

ROSÉ

Gone are the days when only ladies drank rosé – get in touch with your feminine side chaps and find out what you've been missing. No longer is rosé the haven of the indecisive, now it is the confident choice of those who know that some of the most exciting, funky wines out there are pink. Stay safe with Pinot Grigio rosato or travel to Spain where rosado is a speciality and the wines are characteristically ebullient and forthright.

Castillo Del Moro Tempranillo Rosado, VdT Castilla – Spain	£19.95
Casa Defra Pinot Grigio Rosato, IGT Veneto – Italy	£23.50
The Pimpernel Rosé, Coonawarra – Australia	£27.95
Domaine Daulny Sancerre Rosé, Loire – France	£39.95

CABERNET & MERLOT

Arguably the grape varieties that make the worlds greatest red wines, these two varieties work equally as well independently as they do happily ensconced in bed together. Cabernet's rather angular jaw line and intense, brooding nature make it the natural hero whilst Merlot is all front – perhaps not the intellect or depth but what it lacks in brains it more than makes up for in good looks, ample curves and head turning cleavage.

Costa Vera Merlot, Central Valley – Chile	£22.50
Largesse Merlot, IGP Pays D'Oc – France	£23.50
The Pugilist Cabernet Sauvignon, Limestone Coast – Australia	£26.95
Duette Cabernet Carmenere, Maipo – Chile	£33.50
Stella Bella Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot, Margaret River – Australia	£45.00
Château Treytins Montagne Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux – France	£44.95

SHIRAZ

Baking in the heat of the Rhone valley, France's Syrah still makes some of the most profound wines in the world but for most people, Syrah is all about Shiraz… the new world moniker for this beast of a variety. Ranging from youthful spicy and succulent all the way through to huge, dark and concentrated, Shiraz shot to fame as the grape behind many of the Aussies most important wines. It's pretty widely travelled too with exciting Rhône ranging wines springing up all over the globe.

Santa Rosa Shiraz Malbec, Mendoza – Argentina	£19.50
One Chain Vineyards, "The Wrong Un" Shiraz Cabernet, South Eastern Australia	£23.50
Babylon's Peak Syrah Carignan, Swartland – South Africa	£28.50
Thistledown 'The Cunning Plan' Shiraz, Mclaren Vale – Australia	£33.50

PINOT NOIR

If you ever see a winemaker sat deep in thought, or possibly head in hands crying, he's probably been making Pinot Noir. To some the holy grail, to others the only light they see at the end of the Pinot tunnel is that of an oncoming train. Fickle, shy yielding and decidedly enigmatic, Pinot Noir can also be the most beautiful ethereal and sensuous of grape varieties. Who ever said that nothing good in life is simple?

Nostros Pinot Noir Reserva, Casablanca – Chile	£24.95
Sherwood Estate Pinot Noir, Marlborough – New Zealand	£29.95
Amayna Pinot Noir, Leyda Valley – Chile	£45.00

RIOJA & TEMPRANILLO

The breathtakingly beautiful region of Rioja in Northern Spain uses Tempranillo, amongst others, to make its supremely elegant, savoury reds. Called all sorts of names across Spain, Tempranillo is not only the work horse of Spanish wine but also the prize pony. Increasingly sought after elsewhere, Tempranillo's smooth as silk berry fruit and thoroughly charming manners have made it friends wherever it goes.

Centelleo Tempranillo, VdT Castilla – Spain	£18.50
El Primero Graciano/Granacha, IGP 3 Riberas – Spain	£22.50
DeAlto, Rioja – Spain	£24.95
Luis Cañas Rioja Reserva, DOCa Rioja – Spain	£47.95

ODDBALL REDS

Who wants to be normal – it's totally over-rated. Take a walk on the dark side and try something a little more exotic. We've got Garnacha from a flying Scotsman, Malbec more meaty than a Gaucho's bbq and a Norwegian owned Chilean wine that even sounds odd.

Mont Rocher Carignan Vielles Vignes, IGP Pays D'Oc – France	£23.95
Quinta da Aveleda Vinho Verde, Portugal	£24.50
La Multa Old Vine Garnacha, Calatayud – Spain	£24.50

Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Domaine du Vieux Lazaret Vignoble Quiot, Rhône – France	£59.95

PUDDING WINES

If you can, save a little space for dessert with a cracking wine. Alternatively, skip the dessert and just have the wine! From the tangy, orange laced Torrontes to the incredible rich, sticky toffee pudding in a glass that is Gluttony through to the Sauternes beating Grandjo, treat your taste buds with these luscious delights.

Zuccardi Reserva Torrontes Tardio, Mendoza – Argentina	(50cl)	£3.95	(75ml Gls)	£23.95
